DEMOCRATS, STAND BY YOUR PARTY.—AT A meeting of the Democratic Union General Committee, held at Maxonic Hail, Thirteenth street, Tues-lay evening, October 25, William A. Bord, Ewg., after an able and eloquent exposition of the duty of the Democraty to achieve a signal victory in this State, preparatory to the great national redemption in 1872, diered the following reacolutions, whole being put to vote, were adopted by a large majority:—Wiereas. Two Democratic city and county tickets are already in the field, one nominated by the organization meeting at Tammany Hail, and the other by an association commonly known as the "Young Democracy" and Whoreas, The Tribune, the principal orean of the republican party in this city and State, urges the support of the ticket of the "young democracy" by the republicans, for the following reason:—, "our own conviction is clear and strong that General Woodford's election would be all but assured by the adoption of the anti-ring democratic trace:—that Woodford's election would be all but assured by the adoption of the anti-ring democratic trace:—that Woodford's election would be all but assured by the adoption of the anti-ring democratic trace:—that Woodford's election would be all but assured by the adoption of the anti-ring democratic trace:—that Woodford's election would be all but assured by the adoption of the anti-ring democratic trace:—that Woodford's election of the native property of the party in the following broader and more explicit insurage:—

"Yo Mr. Hail, personalir, we have no objection to make that would not apply to any leader in his party. But Mr. Hail, respecting the amplicant such as the active with the duty of the party." And Whereas, The Requibilican State Committee, especially charged with the duty of attempting to elect the republicans of this city that they will "one and antice as the subserve the interests of their party" by upporting the amplicant of the Democratic Union organization, it is hereby.

porting the candidates of the young democracy;" therefore, on behalf of the Democratic Union organization, it is hereby

Resolved, That this General Committee will not add to existing political combinations by the nomination of a third democratic city and county ticket; but that, if view of the danger indicated by the above extracts from the republican organization this city, and the unprocedented action of the republican State Committee, of an attempt to obtain support for local nominees by betraying the democracy of the State and action, this General Committee carnestry invokes every true hearted democrat, whatever may be his views or feelings in regard to personal or local matters, to be vigitant and watchful in his efforts to secure a faithful and united support of democrats, and democrats only, as candidates for State officers, for Congress and for the Assembly, and of only those candidates for any office who are true to the principles and who seek the attecase of the democrate party. And this Committee also appeals to the whole democracy of this city to expose and democrace offices, and to opyone and international committee also appeals to the whole democracy of this city to expose and democrace offices, and to opyone and international committee also appeals to the whole democratic party.

Resolved, That the several ward associations are hereby requested to tate active and efficient measures to accomplish the objects of the foregoing resolution.

TOOTHPICK FOR THE ROTTEN CORPORATION OF New York.—My Lotes and Gentlemen, to all whom it may concern:—I pronose to your honorable decision the Hon. Thomas A. Ledwith, Judge, as a candidate for the great metropolitan city of America, as Mayor of New York city. You may boast of your Tammany arrangement as you please; it is a mistake; there is another emancipation to be proclaimed; its name is prostitution; it is the least shame of man. You may think the clouds roll over us or the mam occan sweeps over us, or the sponge already drenched by you, gentlemen of 'T.' He who sees it sees the shadow—He alone—His name is God.

I present to the Grand Army the Hon. Judge Ledwith as a cancidate for Mayor of the city of New York, also General Woodford for Governor ef the State of New York, to your noble consideration, hoping it will meet your approbation.

Men and soldiers—To due is no such mighy bardship, but to betray trust is impossible to men who think as we do. I would sconer due than live n shave and tratter in the land of this great interior, that squares more acres of land than Russia, with her half moon.

Gentlemen, I have the honer to announce my tutor's name, that speak man. Load a Name Acid.

this great interior, this squares more announce my tutor's name, Geottemen, I have the hour to announce my tutor's name, that great man, Lord of Misrule, O'Conneil himself. Geotlemen, you have to admit Tranty College pupils, also Castle prown, to stand, geniemen of the globe, English on the right, French on the left.

I have the honor to announce Wendell Phillips and myself, two closeted pupils of Daniel O'Connell, Derryname Abbey, caunty Kerry.

My Lords ont Gentlemen, I have the honor to remain your lordships' humble servant.
